

Set the language

File → Options and settings → Options → Regional Settings →

Load data to Power BI Desktop (csv)

Home → Get Data → Text/CSV → <<Brows for the data location>> → Load

Load data to Power BI Desktop (Excel)

Home → Get Data → Excel → <<Brows for the data location>> → Select data set → Load

Transform Data

Home → Transform Data → <<It opens Power Query Editor to Transform data>>

Adding additional Data

In the local location create a new folder and move sales data to that folder → Home → New Source → More... → All → Folder → <<Brows for the data location>> → OK → Transform Data

Combine Files

<< Click double down arrows>> → Ok

Data Preparation

Merge and Rename Columns

<< Select the table and the columns(Ctrl+Column)>> → Add Column → Merge Columns → <<Give a name for new Column>>

Dinuka D. Kirindage

Extract useful data from columns

<< Select column>> → Add Column → Extract → Text Before Delimiter
→ <<Enter the delimiter that you want>> → Ok → Rename the column if you want

Change the data type of a column

Home → Data Type: → <<Select the data type that you want>>

Check the quality of the columns

View → Column quality

Convert numerical data to categorical

Add Column → Conditional Column → <<Enter a name for the new column>> → Enter the categories as following → ok

Add Conditional Column

Add a conditional column that is computed from the other columns or values.

New column name
IncomeLevel

	Column Name	Operator	Value		Output
If	AnnualIncome	is greater than or...	150000	Then	Very High
Else If	AnnualIncome	is greater than or...	100000	Then	High
Else If	AnnualIncome	is greater than or...	50000	Then	Average

Add Clause

Else
Low

OK Cancel

Rounding floating values to decimal places

<< Select the table and the columns(Product, ProductCost)>> → Transform → Rounding → <<Enter the decimal places to round to>> → ok

Adding a calculated column

Add Column → Custom Column → <<Enter a name for new column>>
<<Enter the formula for the column>> → ok
<<Change the data type into Decimal Number>>
<<Round the decimal places into two>>

Splitting columns (Power BI detects the date in month/date/year format)

<< Select the table and the columns(Calendar, Date)>> → Transform → Split Column → By Delimiter → ok

Merge columns

<<Select columns>> → Add Column → Merge Columns → <<Select Separator as Custom and add / >> → <<Add a column Name>> → ok

Adding New Columns

<<Select parse column>> → Add column → date → select necessary item

Filling empty values

<< Select the table and the columns(Products, ProductStyle)>> → Transform → Replace Values → Fill the dialog box → ok → Transform → Fill → Down or Up

Removing unwanted rows

<< Select the table and the columns(Products, ProductStyle)>> → Remove Rows → <<Enter number of rows need to remove>> → Ok

Transposing data

<< Select the table (Manufacturer)>> → Transform → Transpose

Remove the tables which are not need for the analysis

<< Select the table (Manufacturer)>> → <<Right Click>> → <<Untick 'Enable Load'>>

Load the data into the Power BI Desktop data model to visualize the data.

File → Close & Apply

OR

Power BI Desktop's alert message

Dinuka D. Kirindage